Is your company collecting all available tax credits?

A survey from Area Development magazine and Location Management Services revealed:

- ▶ 86% reported that they need improvement in their company's process of collecting and managing available incentives
- ▶ 87% reported that they do not have an incentives process in place
- ▶ 63% reported they had no plans to improve their process of improving incentive management and collection

Tax Alternatives specializes in the collection, management, and tracking of all available tax credits. We work on a contingency and will turn the project into a tax savings for our clients.

Why *tax*AlternativesSM?

We Simplify It For You

Tax Alternatives provides your company with a “quick checklist form” for your new hires to complete—a simplified version of IRS Form 8850 that is easy for each new hire to understand.

Eligible new employees:

- A member of a family receiving food stamps
- A member of a family receiving AFDC, TANF, TAF benefits
- Vocational Rehabilitation referrals
- Qualified Veterans
- SSI (Supplemental Security Income) recipients
- A registered Native American Indian
- Summer Youths
- Living in Empowerment Zones or Renewal Communities

Then our job begins.....

Because we work on a contingency basis, clients pay only when results are realized.

Tax Alternatives constantly monitors government tax credit programs, which can change regularly. Knowledge of current laws maximizes the best results for your company.

Tax Alternatives identifies, verifies, calculates, and tracks tax credits for all eligible employees.

Welfare-to-Work Tax Credits can earn your company up to $9,000 in tax credits per employee and the Work Opportunity Tax Credits can earn you up to $2,400 per employee.

The paperwork to claim available tax credits can be complex and time consuming—requiring numerous forms and supporting documentation for each individual employee included in the credit claim.

Tax Alternatives manages these complex and time-consuming tasks efficiently—while being considerate of our clients’ busy schedules. We strive to minimize the impact on your valuable time.

The majority of businesses overlook available tax credits that may significantly impact their bottom line.
